

When?
Saturday 7 April 2018
9am – 12.00pm

Where?
Ipswich Civic Centre
50 Nicholas St
Ipswich QLD 4305

Morning tea provided ☺

Planning for Now, Tomorrow and the Future

Register here to reserve your place

If you have any questions please let us know by emailing admin@dlq.org.au or calling 3622 1250.

You are invited to attend a free legal presentation for families and friends of people with a disability.

This presentation will provide attendees with information to assist them to plan for and protect the future of their loved ones with a disability.

Legal concepts of capacity, guardianship and administration, and wills and trusts, including special disability trusts, will be explained with the aim of enabling attendees to better understand the ways in which the law may be used to safeguard their plans.

The Presenter

Aimee McVeigh, director of Disability Law Queensland, has over 10 years of legal experience and has always maintained an interest in helping clients facing disadvantage throughout her career. Aimee is an expert in this field and enjoys working with clients with disability and their families to achieve both legal and practical solutions to the challenges they encounter.

